after another its outworks have fallen before the efforts of truth, and ere long the citadel itself will be levelled to the ground. And are the representatives of the American people to lay their hands on their mouths, and their mouths in the dust, to look on and see the persecutions and oppressions to which their countrymen are exposed abroad, and not even express their displeasure and their demands? And all from an affectation of national decorum—national squeamishness it should be called—which is so tender to the presumption of others as to sacrifice our own true rights and honor. I trust no such humiliation is instore for us.

Mr. Baddes, (whig) of Ga., asked if the Senator had seen a paragraph going the rounds in the newspapers, purporting to have been taken from the Skepherd of the Valley, a Catholic magazine in St. Louis, published under the authority and supervision of a Roman Catholic Bishop of the diocess, in which it was stated that as soon as the Catholic population of any State in this Union should get the supremacy, religious toleration would be at an end in that State.

Mr. Cass said he had seen such a paragraph, imputed to that paper, but had not seen the paper itself.

Mr. Baddes suggested to the Senator 'he propriety of amending his resolution so as to direct the committee to American citisens religious toleration at home.

Mr. Cass—I think the government has nothing to do with religious toleration at home.

Mr. Baddes asked the Senator to suppose a case—that

Mr. Badere asked the Senator to suppose a case—that one or more should happen to fall within the case put by this paper, an event which he feared was not an improbable one—would not this government occupy rather an awkward position in asking foreign governments to grant to American citizens a right which confessedly this government cannot secure to them at home?

Mr. Claytos, (whig) of Del, hoped the subject would now be referred. He proposed to discuss it himself at some suitable time, but before doing so he preferred that the committee, of which he was a member, should consider the matter. Reference agreed to.

Mr. Claytos moved that the vetoed bill granting land to the insane, be printed as it passed Congress. Agreed to.

Mr. Hunter moved to take up the Indian Appropriation bill.

Mr. Baroun said, that after the discussion that had taken place, no one desired to commence at this late heur to consider the Indian bill. He therefore moved the Senate adjourn.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1854. WASHINGTON, May 15, 1854.

Col. Richardson's medified resolution to extend the time for closing the debate till moon Saturday succeeded in defeating the combined action of the whige, abolition ists and Col. Benton. The great majority of the anti-Nebraska democrats acted in conformity with the understanding of their caucus, and voted for the modified resolution. We will, therefore, have a week's peace; but after the five minutes' debate begins, then look out for squalls.

A DUEL ON THE TAPIS. The difficulty between Messrs. Hunt and Craige will, it is believed, lead to a hostile meeting in the morning. A challenge is understood to have been sent by Colonel Hunt and accepted by Mr. Craige. They are both fighting men, and Mr. Craige has expressed his determina tion of meeting his antagonist.

It is probable that United States Senator Robert John sen, of Arkansas, will be Mr. Craige's second, and Colonel Hawkins, of Kentucky, will be Colonel Hunt's friend.

City Intelligence.

The Embrants Recurd by the Washington.—The unfortunate emigrants who arrived in the city on Sanday by the stemer Washington, were yesterday taken charge of by the Commissioners of Emigration, and provision made for them. The office of the Commissioners of Emigration being closed on Sunday—to justify which there is no good reason—the poor strangers were scattered all over the city, some in a starving condition, and mostly all without shelter or friends. Parties of them strayed to Brocklyn, and on Sunday night slept upon whatever they might chance to fall, some in coal bins, at police stations, in emigrant boarding houses, and some on comfortable beds provided by charitable citizens who happened to witness their distressed condition. All of these destitute creatures who could be found yesterday were feel by the Commissioners, whose duty it is to attend to this class; and the Park, back of the City Hall, was turned the whole day into a washing ground, the assembled emigrants embracing this as the first opportunity to wash their clothes and also to wash themselves. The Park rallings were covered over with cordinary, homespun shirts and stockings of the men, and with the petiticoats, skirts and nightcaps of the women. Their washing day brought to them much comfort, for many a long and dreary day, many a sleepless night and many hours of suffering, perils, disaster and hunger, have been passed by them since they performed their last ablutions on land. These people lost all their little stock of world-lygoods, money, &c., upon which they had ventured to emigrate to a land of strangers, in the bottom of these most mytholess. In this condition they are thrown among us, destitute by no fault of theirs, but by the decree of Providence, and the interposition of our benevoient citizens for the amelioration of the condition of these most wretched persons will be a worthy act of charity.

THE LOST SHIP WINCHESTER—THE SMUGGLERS—STREET PREACHING, ETC.

HOSTON, May 15, 1854.

The lost ship Winchester was chartered in Enoch Train's Liverpool line. She was a line freighting ship of 1.500 tons, and was built in East Boston three years since, by Messrs, Jackson & Ewell, Messrs. W. F. Weld & Co., of this city, being her owners. The vessel was valued at $80,000, and was insured for that amount at several offices. The cargo was also heavily insured here, and the total loss by this disaster will exceed $200,000.

C. F. Hamel, charged with smuggling watches, jewelry, &c., is the Canada, was brought before Commissioner Loring to-day, but examination was waived, and he gave bail in $500 to appear for trial on the fourth Monday in June. Nolomon Cohen, implicated in the same transaction, will be examined next Friday.

Mr. Orr, alias the Angel Gabriel, preached yesterday in Charlestown, South Boston and Cheisea. No rioting of any conrequence occurred. The first regiment of Light Infantry was held in readiness all day to suppress disturbance, had any occurred.

other fancy articles, on one of which was scratched—"From old Spavins to his father," has been owned. It belonged to Mr. Willism Chipperheld, a passenger of the American ship Frince Albert, Bradish, abandoned on her passage from New York to London (previously reported).
Plymourum, April 28—Mr. John Punnett, owner of the Prids of the Cliff m ckerol lugger, of Folkestone, reports;—
20th inst, 5 A M, with a fine breeze at N E, the Eddystone, distant 20 miles, bearing S W, was in contact with the ship
Clara Ann, of Bath (U S), which carried away stern, foremast, mixenmast, and yards, and left the lugger a complete wreck. We asked them to stop by us in order to render assistance, fearing our beat would go down, but having cleared us, she stoed out to sea and left us to our fate.
